

Dear Friend,

I am Timothy Hull, Audit Standard Chartered Bank London. I am writing this letter to ask for your support and co-operation to carry out this business opportunity in my department, in Jan. 2008, a consultant, Mr. Anthony Avery, made a numbered time (fixed) deposit for twelve calendar months, Valued at US$6,600,000.00 in my branch.

Upon maturity I sent a routine notification to his forwarding address but got no reply. After a month, a reminder was sent and finally i discovered from his contract employers that he has passed on.

I am now faced with a problem of who to pass the fortune to. According to the English law, the fortune is supposed to be bequeathed to the government. However don't belong to that school of thought which proposes that the fortune of a deceased person be given to the government. I seek your assistance to act as the beneficiary of the inheritance, and lay claim to the legacy. For now, it is only known to me and two other colleagues.

Everything will be shared between us. The sharing pattern would be 40% for you and 50% for us and 10% for expenses. All I have to do is to amend the WILL stating you as the beneficiary.

I need not emphasize to you that the sensitivity of this issue need not be toyed with by neglecting its confidentiality. At this point I want to assure you that your true consent, full cooperation and confidentiality are all that are required for us to take full advantage of this great opportunity.

I look forward to your urgent reply.

Best Regards

Timothy Hull
